Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public comments.

There were no public comments.

Burning Issues

- Omar Ali: Admin Committee will start enforcing the no food in office policy after this meeting. Any food found in the office will be disposed of without notice. The new computers will be arriving on the 19th. They are taking all the PCs. Please remove all personal and business files before the 19th or they will be gone. Friend told him that there is no security in the office. He walked in to the office and wandered around and no one cared to ask why he was there or what he was doing. And Last Friday, Jonathan Mai and him filled both printer trays to the top with new paper. Yesterday, both trays were empty. Whoever is removing paper from the tray should stop and whoever is printing many copies should use the copy machine.
- Wayne Spalding: There are paper fragments everywhere. Clean up after yourself. Items are missing from their proper locations. Lights are being left on in rooms when no one is in the room. Keep your keys on you, do not leave them in rooms. Some people have lost their keys, please report them to Dennis. Please use the prompt printed on the phones when answering calls, don't just say hello. When students walk in, don't just stare at them, ask how you can help them. Leaving items in rooms for a long period of time is not acceptable.
- Isabelle Barrientos: The keys are supposed to open the doors at 7am. The executive doors do not open on time, but the front doors do.
- April Seo: Please honor each others privacy and not open other people's belongings. Found her locker open this week. Ask permission first.
- Sharon Su: Please check your emails at least twice a day for the sake of communication. Also read thoroughly so you do not miss any information.
- Khalid Ali: You cannot have your friends leave their things in the office.
- Scarlett Kim: There are a lot of people who want to be agents and there need to be more applications printed.

- Bobo Teo: Please try not to leave any of the club items in the office, keep it in the club office.
- Marlo Custodio: Please go around to get to the office, do not go through the executive office.

Announcements

- Wayne Spalding: Judicial Board applications are due by next week. Tell your friends who are interested
- Lalitha: From Circle K, learned that Senators need community service hours each week. Circle K has a service project coming up working with haunted house. They pay the workers money that goes back to help fund different charity organizations. They need ten people per night, sent around a clipboard if you're interested in signing up.
- Jorj Cheko: There's Diwali fliers available to pass out. There have been explicit/derogatory posters posted around campus, damage control made need to be done as some students may believe that the posters are either endorsed by De Anza or the DASB.
- John Yan: Club Day is tomorrow.
- April Seo: There will be a donation drive tomorrow at Club Day.
- Anaruth Hernandez: This weekend, there's a open house fair at the Berryessa Flea Market. Talk to her if you can come help with a booth advocating free health and dental care.
- Josh Chou: Please fill out your sheets for external committee meetings. Go to the Circle K event if you can.
- Marlo Custodio: If any of you would want to train with a small group of students with martial arts, talk to him. Had a meeting with Brian Murphy about the advocacy of the college. About 250,000 students were denied access to community colleges. October 10, there will be a meeting with the different community colleges of the South Bay.
