Resident and Non-Resident Enrollment

- Resident enrollment and FTES is up $+2 \%$ and $+4 \%$, respectively.
- FTES increased by +143 from 3,970 to 4,113 .
- Non-resident enrollment and FTES is down $-31 \%$ and $-29 \%$, respectively.
- FTES decreased by -226 from 773 to 547.
- Overall, total FTES decreased by -83 from 4,743 to 4,660 . The decrease is driven by the decline in non-resident FTES.

Resident and Non-Resident Enrollment by Category

- Among the resident category, subgroups whose FTES decreased are AB 540 (-17 FTES) and AB 2364 dual enrollment (-3 FTES). However, their decrease is offset by the resident subgroup whose FTES increased from 3,801 to 3,964 ( +163 FTES), and accounted for the resident category's FTES increase of $+4 \%$ mentioned in the previous section of this report.
- Non-resident international subgroup, which includes all international student visas, continues to account for the largest enrollment subgroup among the non-resident category. Their FTES is down $-32 \%$ from 646 to 446 (-200 FTES).

International Students

- International students with F1 or FZ visas decreased from 1,702 to 1,210. This decrease is -492 (-29\%) fewer international students than last winter quarter.
- International students are likely to be male (56\%). The top countries of origin includes: China, Indonesia, South Korea, Vietnam and Taiwan. Combined, these five countries account for $64 \%$ of all international students.

Note: Actual enrollment and section count for 2020 is end-of-term data, whereas 2021 is current as of census 01.19.21.
Fill Rates by Division

- Even with fewer sections that ran in winter 2021 than compared to the previous year, the college's fill rate is relatively the same at $91 \%$.
- The top three divisions with positive percentage point change in their fill rates include Applied Technologies ( +5 percentage points), Intercultural/International Studies ( +5 percentage points) and Biological, Health & Environmental Sciences ( +3 percentage points).
- Despite having half the number of sections as compared to last year, Physical Education/ Athletics division's fill rate improved from $68 \%$ to $80 \%$. Learning Resources and Disability Support Programs & Services change in fill rates are -16 and -7 percentage points, respectively. These two divisions have fewer sections in winter 2021 than compared to the prior year.

AB 705 Enrollment Shifts

- Compared to last year, enrollment decreased for MATH (-1\%), EWRT (-9\%) and ESL (-22\%). While more transfer-level sections are offered, the total transfer-level enrollments decreased -4\% in winter 2021.
- There are more Calculus (Math $1 \mathrm{~A} / 1 \mathrm{~B} / 1 \mathrm{C} / 1 \mathrm{D}$ ) and fewer Pre-Calculus (MATH 41, 42, 42, 31, 32) as well as Statistics (MATH 10, 46, 44, 11, 17) sections than compared to last year. Calculus had the greatest enrollment increase ( +215 enrollments). Enrollments from All Other transferlevel Math consisting of MATH 2, 12 and 22 also increased by +127 enrollments. Both PreCalculus and Statistics enrollments are down, having at least -180 fewer enrollments than last winter quarter. Basic skills MATH 212 enrollment is down, whereas enrollments from the basic skills support courses (MATH 210, 231, 232) are up.
- EWRT 1A/1AS/1AT enrollment decreased by -259 enrollments. Despite a 5 -section count increase, enrollments from All Other transfer-level EWRT consisting of EWRT 1B, 2, 30, 40 and 77Y decreased by -33 enrollments. EWRT did not offer any basic skills courses in winter 2021.
- Transfer-level ESL 5 enrollment increased by 22 enrollments. Its basic skills enrollment declined by -316 enrollments.

Zip Code Grouping

- Table 10 focuses on De Anza College's African American, Filipinx and Latinx student populations and provides their headcounts by zip code grouping.
- Student headcounts for these three ethnic groups increased the greatest in All Other Areas.
- Focusing on the first three zip code groupings, which accounts for more than three-fourths of all student headcount at De Anza College, African American headcount decreased in the immediate service area (-15) as well as in the East Bay (-18) and South Bay (-13). Filipinx headcount increased by +35 in the East Bay but decreased in the local service area (-12) and South Bay (-14). Latinx headcount increased in the local service area (+16) but decreased in the East Bay (-161) and South Bay (-12).
