Asynchronous Online Course Structure

- Canvas: This course resides on the course management system called Canvas. It is accessible from MyPortal
- Online Learning Equipment: (1) A computer connected to stable internet to access Canvas. The interface of Canvas is slightly different on an iPhone/iPad and more difficult to navigate. (2) A device to photograph your artwork for submission on Canvas for grading. Phone cameras will suffice (3) Art materials. Please purchase the art kit at the De Anza Bookstore. The list of materials is attached. (4) A flat table surface to work freely which is not your bed. Making art does get messy.
- To Read/To Watch/To Do: Readings, lectures and demos will be assigned in weekly modules. Students will follow instructions and complete homework. Do not skip to-read and to-watch items. Students are expected to spend about 12 hours weekly on this course.

- Assignments: Homework for the course includes exercises, assignments, Canvas discussions, etc. This is a major component of the course. All homework will be evaluated and graded within 1 week after the due date. All grades will display in Canvas
- Instructional Feedback/Guidance: Individual guidance is available in-person and online. Students are encouraged to ask questions through discussions, Need Feedback or Canvas Inbox.
- Instructor communicates with you through weekly Announcements. Thoroughly read (DO NOT skim) them. You are responsible for the information communicated. Additionally, your instructor might have the need to communicate with you individually. Check your Canvas regularly for grades, assignment feedback and discussion response. Expect 48 hours to have your questions answered.

- Interaction With Peers: Discussions, Critiques & Peer Reviews

Discussion: Students post in Discussions as instructed and comment on peer's work. This is part of your class participation

Critique: Midterm Critique & Final Critique will be conducted through Peer Review in Canvas where students provide feedback for artworks by assigned peers. Comments will be graded. Detailed instructions will be given

Peer Review: Peer Reviews will be assigned to students for critiques. Students write comments for work by their peers to earn points

- How to contact your instructor

(1) Message via Canvas (preferred): This is the fastest way to get a response from instructor. Send instructor a message through Canvas Inbox. Expect 48 hours for a response

(2) Email: Email instructor huangmeiru@fhda.edu

(3) Upload to Need Feedback under Canvas: Upload an image of your artwork and ask instructor specific questions about your homework

Online Learning Participation & Engagement

- Students are expected to dedicate approximately 12 hours per week to this course
- Participation & contribution in class is important, which includes a mature and responsible approach to the subject, to the instructor, and to one's peers. Please remain supportive and respectful with your comments in Canvas
- To maintain physical and emotional health, students are recommended to set a daily/weekly routine to balance school, work, health, family responsibilities and leisure
- Support and guidance is available. Communicate and reach out for help when you need help
- Remind yourself to take breaks from screens

Assignments, Examinations and Extra Credit:

Assignments

- For some exercises, students will submit by uploading pictures of artwork onto Canvas. Use JPG/JPEG format. Create an organized folder in your computer for this course and name your images properly.

Late Assignments

- Assignments need to be submitted in a timely fashion. Late assignments turned in 7 days after the due dates will be marked down.

Examinations

- Our final examination will be a formal critique on our Final Assignment (date/time TBD)

Extra Credit

- Making extra drawings related to class topics and earn up to 5 points. Specific topics and instructions will be announced. Points from Extra Credit work demonstrate student's willingness to devote more time to practice. These points cannot be used to substitute missing assignments
